

News NAMES in Main Line Real Estate

Prudential Fox & Roach REALTORS make Charitable Contribution To Baker Industries

"It is inspiring to see the voluntary donations, on behalf of our sales associates and employees, make a difference in people's lives through the charitable giving of Fox & Roach Charities," says Gerry Griesser, President of Fox & Roach Charities. Fox & Roach Charities has contributed more than $3.8 million through office fund donations and board of trustee grants, since its inception in 1995, to more than 250 organizations in the Tri-State area.

Through Fox & Roach Charities, the Rosemont Office recently made a charitable contribution to Baker Industries, in Malvern. Pictured here (left to right)

Carol Thacher, a Rosemont Sales Associate and charity representative, presents a check to Turk Thacher, from Baker Industries.

Fox & Roach Charities, the charitable arm of Prudential Fox & Roach, REALTORS® headquartered in Devon, PA, is a non-profit charitable organization focusing meaningful contributions of time, effort and finances toward service projects that address the needs of children and families in stressful life circumstances. "We are so pleased to be able to continue our charitable giving to help those in need," adds Kassie Aungst, Fox & Roach Charities Director, "especially in today's economic climate."

American Dance Wheels Foundation, Inc.

"It is inspiring to see the voluntary donations, on behalf of our sales associates and employees, make a difference in people's lives through the charitable giving of Fox & Roach Charities," says Gerry Griesser, President of Fox & Roach Charities. Fox & Roach Charities has contributed more than $3.8 million through office fund donations and board of trustee grants, since its inception in 1995, to more than 250 organizations in the Tri-State area.

Through Fox & Roach Charities, the Haverford Home Marketing Center (HMC) recently made a charitable contribution to American Dance Wheels Foundation, Inc., in Bala Cynwyd, to support the Wheelchair Ballroom and Latin Dance Program. Pictured here (center) Diane

Murphy, of the American Dance Wheels Foundation, accepts a check from (left to right) Shelley Guinessy and Micheline Nachman, Haverford HMC Sales Associates and charity representatives.

Fox & Roach Charities, the charitable arm of Prudential Fox & Roach, REALTORS® headquartered in Devon, PA, is a non-profit charitable organization focusing meaningful contributions of time, effort and finances toward service projects that address the needs of children and families in stressful life circumstances. "We are so pleased to be able to continue our charitable giving to help those in need," adds Kassie Aungst, Fox & Roach Charities Director, "especially in today's economic climate."

To Tredyffrin & Easttown Care

"It is inspiring to see the voluntary donations, on behalf of our sales associates and employees, make a difference in people's lives through the charitable giving of Fox & Roach Charities," says Gerry Griesser, President of Fox & Roach Charities. Fox & Roach Charities has contributed more than $3.8 million through office fund donations and board of trustee grants, since its inception in 1995, to more than 250 organizations in the Tri-State area.

Through Fox & Roach Charities, the Devon Home Marketing Center (HMC)

recently made a charitable contribution to Tredyffrin & Easttown Care, in Devon, to help provide clothing, household goods, and necessities for families with children in times of need or emergencies. Pictured here (left to right) Sandi Gorman and Dennis Willson, of Tredyffrin & Easttown Care, accept a check from (right) Gretchen Kiernan, Devon HMC Sales Associate and charity representative.

Fox & Roach Charities, the charitable arm of Prudential Fox & Roach, REALTORS®